

MADE FOR MORE: PLANTING & HARVESTING

WE

What if we didn't give up?

We don't control the harvest — but we do choose what we plant.

GOD

Paul reminds the Galatians they started by trusting God, but were trying to finish by their own strength.

“You will always harvest what you plant... At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up.” (Galatians 6:7-9 NLT)

Endurance matters more than hype.

POINT 1 – Think Repetition, Not Reaping

We want results. God wants reps. We want harvest. God wants habits.

Repetition is the essence of becoming.

Daniel prayed three times a day — not as reaction, but repetition.

You don't just reap a harvest. You rep a harvest.

POINT 2 – Think in Seasons, Not Seconds

The harvest comes in a different season.

Some of your frustration is not failure — it's timing.

The question is not whether God keeps His promises — it's whether we keep planting.

POINT 3 – Think Spirit, Not Self

We plant daily from either the flesh or the Spirit.

The Spirit produces lasting fruit.

The flesh produces decay.

Choose the source before you expect the harvest.

ME

Gentle and Humble — these words reveal what is truly growing when pressure is applied.

YOU

Where are you living from — flesh or Spirit?

What fruit do you want to see more of this year?

What small habit is God inviting you to repeat?

CLOSE

“Those who plant in tears will harvest with shouts of joy.” — Psalm 126:5
